

Product Introduction and Content

BV Private Club Digital Asset Basket(DAB) has the strategy of catching up the rapidly developing cryptocurrency market, which is divided into new sub-branches, and keeping the risk level to a minimum. In this direction, in order to avoid negative effects in the market, DeFi platforms can be allocated to take advantage of passive returns in USD or high-potential altcoins and game tokens during periods when the market is positive. Private Club DAB, which has a dynamic structure with these features, is among the medium risk baskets.
