

Product Introduction and Content

BV Moon Strategy Digital Asset Basket gets its name from the “moon shot” discourse of the cryptocurrency trade. With the “Maximum Security, Optimum Distribution” approach, it is managed with a strategy composed of various scenarios involving cryptocurrency trade. It is comprised of up to either 50% BTC or the 2.0 version that secured its position in the trade, the rapidly growing DeFi trade's favorite currency ETH by 40% and investing up to 10% of Investment Committee's approved other altcoins. The product does BTC and ETH purchase and sale at predetermined levels and aims to provide returns above BTC/ETH basket in a 12-month period.

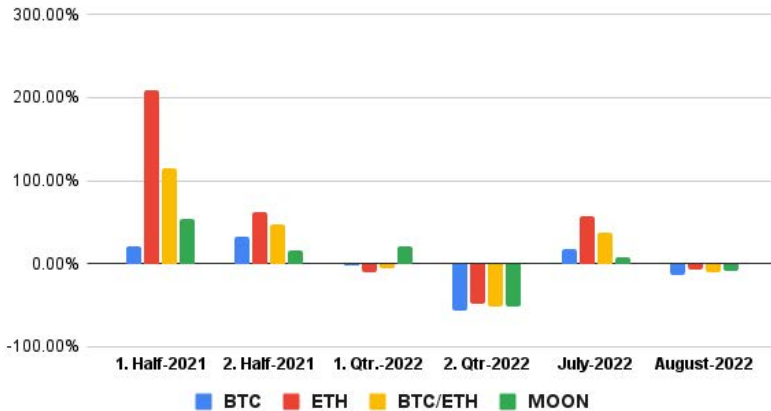

Given Advantages
